We will begin by looking at... Ultimate Questions of Life

People have asked since early civilisations big questions of life, trying to understand life and the world better. Some of those questions were answered at the time through myths and made up stories.

Then through the advancement of science, some of these big questions have been answered.

However, there are also many questions that will never be 100% answered. These are called 'Ultimate Questions'.

As a Philosopher yourself already, can you think of some Ultimate Questions of life that will never be 100% answered?

WHERE DO YOUR BELIEFS COME FROM?

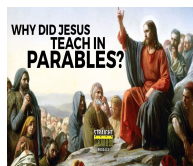

As a Philosopher yourself, you will have lots of ideas, views and beliefs on all sorts of things based on many things. We will hopefully hear many of these from each other and to learn to respect each others views whether we agree with them or not.
